

List of contributions

1. Summary paper.
2. Mapping Situations Within a Systems Development Project. G. F. Lanzara & L. Mathiassen. Information and Management, Vol. 8, No. 1, 1985.
3. Back to Thinking Mode—Diaries as a Medium for Effective Management of Information Systems Development. L. O. Jepsen, L. Mathiassen & P. A. Nielsen. Behaviour and Information Technology, Vol. 8, No. 3, 1989.
4. Systems, Processes, and Structures - a Contribution to the Theoretical Foundation of Information Systems Development and Use. L. Mathiassen. In: System Design for Human Development and Productivity: Participation and Beyond, P. Docherty et al. (Eds.), Amsterdam: North-Holland, 1987.
5. Formalizations in Systems Development. L. Mathiassen & A. Munk-Madsen. Behaviour and Information Technology, Vol. 5, No. 2, 1986.
6. The Principle of Limited Reduction in Software Design. L. Mathiassen & J. Stage. Information, Technology and People, Vol. 6, No. 2, 1992.
7. Prototyping and Specifying: Principles and Practices of a Mixed Approach. L. Mathiassen, T. Seewaldt & J. Stage. Scandinavian Journal of Information Systems, Vol. 7, No. 1, 1995.
8. A Framework for Software Risk Management. K. Lyytinen, L. Mathiassen & J. Ropponen. Journal of Information Technology, Vol. 11, No. 4, 1996.
9. Attention Shaping and Software Risk: A Categorical Analysis of Four Classical Approaches. K. Lyytinen, L. Mathiassen & J. Ropponen. Submitted for publication.
10. Soft Systems and Hard Contradictions—Approaching the Reality of Information Systems in Organizations. L. Mathiassen & P. A. Nielsen. Journal of Applied Systems Analysis, Vol. 16, 1989.
11. Surfacing Organizational Competence. Soft Systems and Hard Contradictions. L. Mathiassen and P. A. Nielsen. In: Organizational Competence in System Development, G. Bjerknes et. al. (Eds.), Lund: Studentlitteratur, 1990.
12. Soft Systems in Software Design. L. Mathiassen, A. Munk-Madsen, P. A. Nielsen & J. Stage. In: Systems Thinking in Europe, M. C. Jackson et al. (Eds.), Plenum Press, 1991.

13. Interaction and Transformation in Soft Systems Methodology. L. Mathiassen & P. A. Nielsen. In: The Infological Equation—Essays in Honor of Börje Langefors, B. Dahlbom (Ed.), Göteborg University, 1995.
14. Method Engineering: Who's the Customer? L. Mathiassen, A. Munk-Madsen, P. A. Nielsen & J. Stage. In: Method Engineering. Principles of Method Construction and Tool Support, J. Brinkkemper, K. Lyytinen & R. J. Welke (Eds.), London: Chapman & Hall, 1996.
15. The Capability Maturity Model and CASE. L. Mathiassen & C. Sørensen. Information Systems Journal, Vol. 6, 1996.
16. A Guide to Manage Software Engineering Technologies. L. Mathiassen & C. Sørensen. In: Diffusion, Transfer, and Implementation of Information Technology, T. McMaster & D. Wastell (Eds.), London: Chapman & Hall, 1997.
17. The Software Factory: Contributions and Illusions. I. Aaen, P. Böttcher & L. Mathiassen. Proceedings of the Twentieth Information Systems Research Seminar in Scandinavia, Oslo, 1997.
18. Transforming IT Management through Action Learning. L. Mathiassen, F. Borum & J. Strandgaard Pedersen. Proceedings of the Twentieth Information Systems Research Seminar in Scandinavia, Oslo, 1997.
19. Systems Development Philosophy. B. Dahlbom & L. Mathiassen. Computers and Society, ACM, Vol. 22, No. 1-4, 1992.
20. A Scandinavian View on ACM's Code of Ethics. B. Dahlbom & L. Mathiassen. Computers and Society, ACM, Vol. 24, No. 2, 1994.
21. The Future of Our Profession. B. Dahlbom & L. Mathiassen. Communications of the ACM, Vol. 40, No. 6, 1997.
22. Zen and the Art of Teaching Systems Development. J. Greenbaum & L. Mathiassen. Computers and Society, ACM, Vol. 20, No. 1, 1990.
